September 2010

Rector's Writ

It seems only a short time ago our volunteers and staff were taking a deep breath, ready to welcome what was hoped to be a somewhat slower pace in the summer months. Now September is at the door-step, and we're getting ready to transition back into the busy season. It's no wonder we're reluctant for summer to end. This earthly life seems a series of stages and transitions that whirl about us whether we're ready or not. One common thread in each life event is that we stay BUSY. We're busy getting ready for vacation, and busy getting caught up once we're back. We're busy getting the kids ready to return to school; busy trying to keep up with work and family demands; busy giving our health the overdue attention it now requires. We hear retired people say they're so busy now, they don't know how they had time to work! We're busy with daily stresses and worries—financial to physical. And yes, our Church, too, has an abundance of ministries and needs that can keep even the most faithful, energized and organized saints busy. We may find ourselves thinking: if we could only be a monk...if we could only be like Mary...if we could only be quiet and pray and listen to God.

Jesus tells his disciples and followers time and again not to be anxious or afraid. In recent summer readings from Luke, we've heard Jesus remind us to be on guard against greed and earthly treasures; on guard because 'where our treasure is...'

God wants our hearts to be with him; no matter what stages, phases or transitions we're going through; no matter how busy, stressful or dull life becomes. How we need and long for that 'peace of God' in our hearts, minds and lives, every season and every day, in this life and the life everlasting.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

(Collect for Proper 20, 17 Pentecost; BCP, pg. 234)

O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in your mercy, grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

(#63. In the Evening; BCP, pg. 833)

Almighty and eternal God, so draw our hearts to you, so guide our minds, so fill our imaginations, so control our wills, that we may be wholly yours, utterly dedicated to you; and then use us, we pray, as you will, and always to your glory and the welfare of your people; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

(#61 A Prayer of Self-Dedication; BCP, pg. 832-33)

A Musical Invitation

Summer is near its end and the fall season is nearly upon us. As we approach September, we look forward to the start of a new season for Grace Church Choir and the opportunity to assist in enhancing our worship experiences. The choir will once again participate in the 10:00 Sunday morning worship services as well as several "special" services which are held during the season such as Christmas Eve, Ash Wednesday, Maundy Thursday, Easter and Lesson & Carols. Preparing anthems and other special music for worship is an enriching experience which provides singers the chance to grow musically and to share their talent with others. We endeavor to learn and perform a variety of sacred choral literature of different styles and from different time periods each year with which to enhance our worship. We work hard but we also have a lot of fun!

We are in great need of basses for our choir for this coming season. Steve Barna has done an exemplary job of holding down the bass section alone for this past season, but he and Marsha (soprano) are now moving from the area. (Thanks, Steve and Marsha, for sharing your commitment and talents with us for these past many years!) Obviously, this leaves us with a dilemma. In order to continue to perform much of the repertoire we have learned in the past and to learn new pieces written for 4 parts, we really do need basses in the choir. (Sopranos, Altos and Tenors are always welcome too!)

Please give this request your prayerful consideration and give me a call (330.487.0579) or talk with me on Sunday morning about this opportunity to serve our church. Choir rehearsals begin on Thursday, September 9 from 7:00 – 8:30 PM with warm-up at 9:15 AM on Sundays, then singing for the 10 AM service. WE'D LOVE TO HAVE YOU JOIN US!

Mary Ann Switz
Organist/Choir Director

Did You Know?...

Since we didn't get a Grace Vine in August, the following information may seem dated, but it's "stuff" you may want to know about!!...

The Conways spent an evening watching daughters, Schyler, McKenna, and Jillian take part in a combination of 10 different musical numbers at their dance recital. It was a wonderful recital, but a very long one...

John and Mary Jean McDonald went to see their grandson Fredrick receive his first Holy Communion at the beautiful Grace Cathedral in San Francisco. It was a lovely and impressive service, and the procession was so long it went out into the street...

Thanks to Junior Warden Cory Conway for bringing the dehumidifier to the office area; we could have grown mushrooms down there with all the humidity and the dehumidifier makes such a difference. It also helps to get the new carpet smell out of the office area...

Paige Thomas is home from the hospital. She was so happy to be home, but sadly, while she was ill their family dog, Brutus, had to be put down. He's now in a much better place. (Do dogs go to heaven? --I know mine did!)...

Thanks to Toni Worthen, Megan Worthen, Nancy Ervin, and Marsha Snyder for the hot dog lunch served to our members on the 4th of July weekend during coffee hour. It was a nice break and everyone seemed to enjoy it...

It was great having Maynard's daughter, Amy, son-in-law Ed, and grandchildren Selby, Dayton, and Hanna (and her beau, Austin) here from Louisville, KY. The family was here to visit with Dad/Grandpa Maynard and watch Dayton play in a baseball tournament in Akron. And by the way -- their team won the tournament. While Dayton was here he threw a tennis ball over our 75 foot church steeple. He is one of only four people (that we know of) to succeed at that feat in our 145 history. The others included Daisy Poe Pratte (Daisy must have had quite an arm); Eleanor Blank's late husband, Bill (in 1956, according to the 1965 history of Grace Church); and Mike Pope, a high school student & Grace Church member in the 1980's. With stained glass and other windows around, Maynard's daughter, Amy, was having no part of a baseball being thrown since it wasn't clear where it would land. Smart thinking!!...

It was great seeing Sonja and Donnie Sherwood here on the 4th of July all the way from Massachusetts.

They -- along with Morgan & John -- were visiting Sonja's parents, Sue and Bruce Ahrens...

Congratulations to Jeff and Martha Croll on their 25th Wedding Anniversary. They renewed their marriage vows and hosted a lovely reception at their home on July 24th. Rev. Carol officiated and it was a wonderful event for a very special couple thanking God for their first 25 years...

Denise Crouse had her 9 month old twin grandchildren with her on Sunday, July 4th. She was babysitting and you can believe she had her arms and hands full. The babies were very good and Denise was very brave...

Many thanks to Cindy Hoskins for staffing Gracie's Back Door for the summer. Please stop by any Wednesday to visit with her and don't forget to buy one of the many treasures in Gracie's. I'm sure there is something for everyone...

Jeff Marsh & Jeff Croll have joined the "Poker Boys". Don't let them corrupt you guys! The 'Poker Boys' have donated over $1,000 to the Parish Discretionary Fund, Youth Fund, and Carpet Fund over the past year. Thanks for your generosity, gentlemen!!...

Michelle Davis, Barb Popiel's daughter, came home for a long over due visit. Her sister Jamie is engaged to Matt Lewis, and Michelle and her father came from Florida to celebrate with the couple and family. Jamie is so excited to show off her ring and her fiancée (not necessarily in that order!). Barb says Matt is very nice, polite, and helpful. It looks like he's won his future mother-in-law over. Congratulations, Jamie, and good start, Matt!!...

The Youth Group had a great time at the car wash held on Sunday, July 11th. Thanks to everyone who helped including: Tim, Eric, and Kevin Splinter; Stacey, Zack and Emily Scibelli; Addrienne, Schyler, McKenna, and Jillian Conway; Denise Crouse, Phillip Crouse, and Brittany Canan, and Noah Crouse; Chris, Nicole, Samantha Stickle and Jenna Summy. A special thanks to Jeff Croll for stepping in and helping out with the high stuff when he came to get his car washed. And thank you to all who came to support our youth group and got their car washed...

Congratulations to Amanda and Rob Young! Their bundle of joy arrived June 25th. Aiden weighed in at 7 lb 12 oz and is 20.5 inches long. Aiden is very mellow and a joy to be around. Grandma Sandy Ulbricht is enjoying her new grandson and sent a picture via email, check it out on the bulletin board...

Emily Summy attended Youth Musicale for the third year. This is a youth choir that traveled the southern part of the state (Cambridge, St. Clairsville, Harrisville, New Philadelphia and Massillon); they rehearse countless hours and they stay at a different church each night. This year they performed at a detention center and a day care. It's hard work but it's a lot of fun. Emily's mother, Kathy, took part in this organization when she was Emily's age and found that it was a wonderful experience...

This summer Debbie Shorts & Rick Lashley took their dream vacation venturing off to Alaska (a good summer to go north). They took a cruise and then headed inland for more fun and adventures. We're glad to have them back home safely from the North Country...

Mary Jean & John McDonald enjoyed daughter Amy's visit with them this summer, even though it was too short...

Once again this year the Christian Ed group did a great job with Vacation Bible School. The adult leaders were Chris Stickle, Addrienne & Cory Conway, Denise Crouse, Stacy Scibelli, Kathy Summy, Sue Ahrens, Amanda Ondrejko, Phillip Crouse, Brittany Cannon, and Rev. Carol. The teen leaders were Megan Worthen, Schyler Conway, Nicole Stickle, and Sammie Stickle. Lane and Wilda (Denise and Chrissy's parents) made dinner one evening for VBS kids & staff, and Rodney Stickle (Chrissy's husband) treated the group to Friday night pizza. Chrissy prepared all the other meals! Thanks to the many chefs!! Among the 20+ children who attended were: Zack & Emily Scibelli; McKenna & Jillian Conway; Madison Ahrens; Noah Crouse; Landon; Matthew; Justin, Angel, Deamian, Heavenly, and Christian Allen; Brooklynne & Paige Skidmore. Thanks to everyone who supported our VBS this year with cash, snacks, food, and your love and prayers. Our children are our future...

Tim, Marcia, Eric & Kevin Splinter spent two and a half weeks on "The Great American Family Road Trip" to the Grand Canyon. They covered: 18 days, 14 states, 5900 miles, 12 hotels, 5 National Parks, 6 National Monuments, 10 National Forests, 1 car repair, 1 relative's house, license plates from every state except Vermont, 5 Canadian Provinces and 1 Mexican state...and 2000 digital photos, literally...oh, and no one killed each other, so it was a success! ...

On August 21st Stephanie York received her Master of Education degree in Special Education from Kent State. She completed 84 credit hours in three years while working full time, being a mom, a newly wed and maintaining a 3.92 grade point average! Stephanie wants to say a special thank you not only to her husband and family, but to Bette Brooks for her guidance, support and encouragement. No more homework for awhile... Thanks be to God!...

We're sad to have two families moving from the area. Blake and Bonnie Quay are moving to Florida where the warm weather is going to be much better for Blake's health. And Marsha and Steve Barna are moving to the Columbus area this fall to be closer to their children and grandchildren. They all will be truly missed...

We were pleased to see Phyllis & Bill Shorts here at Grace Church on the weekend of August 22nd. Bill came from Florida to attend his 65th class reunion in Sharon, Pennsylvania. Phyllis says it's a small group, but they are looking forward to attending...

New grand babies have arrived – Marsha & Steve Barna's son Matt and daughter-in-law Andrea are the proud parents of a baby girl. But not a little baby girl, Cameron Victoria came into the world on August 7 weighing in at 10 pounds 7 ounces and was 22 inches long. The pictures of her were adorable and big brother was very proud of her. Judy and Roger Watkins also have a new granddaughter Sophia Isabella Watkins-Gonzalez born to their son Steve and Christina Gonzalez. Sophia was born on August 24th weighing in at 3 lbs. 15oz. (three weeks early) but everyone is doing well. Congratulations to our new grandparents...

Kevin Splinter is among the "bigger older" boys on his football team this year and is playing lineman on offense AND defense. It's a rude awakening to just how much work (and pain) football really is. Good luck boys!...

Barb Splinter, Tim's mother, wants to pass on that she had a great month seeing everyone at Grace and truly feels at home in her "church away from home". She'll miss us all...

Philander Chase

September 22

Philander Chase was born in Cornish, New Hampshire, on December 14, 1775, to Dudley and Allace Chase. His father was a deacon in the Congregational Church and a local farmer of some prominence. While a student at Dartmouth College, he found a copy of The Book of Common Prayer, which inspired him to seek ordination as an Episcopal priest. Upon graduation in 1795, he studied for the priesthood with the Rev. Thomas Ellison in Albany, New York, since there were no Episcopal seminaries in the newly formed United States. The next few years were momentous ones for him; he married Mary Fay, their first son was born, and he was ordained deacon. When admitted to the priesthood in 1799, he took charge of Christ Church in Poughkeepsie, New York.

In 1805 he accepted an invitation to help establish the first Episcopal parish in New Orleans, hoping that the move south would alleviate his wife's tuberculosis. Mary did not improve and the couple greatly missed their children whom they had left with relatives in New England. They returned and Philander became rector of Christ Church, Hartford, Connecticut. Within a few years, he felt pulled westward. This pull plus the growing tensions with John Henry Hobart, Bishop of New York, led him to settle in Worthington, OH, a small pioneer community, in 1817. He purchased a tract of land for a farm and was the principal of Worthington Academy. However, within a year Mary died. It was at this point that Chase was appointed bishop of the newly formed Diocese of Ohio. His appointment was met with such disapproval that it was not until nearly a year later that he was finally consecrated.

As bishop, Chase found it exceedingly difficult to find qualified clergy to fill the pulpits of the growing diocese. Since the split from the Church of England at the time of independence from Great Britain, the American church had paid little attention to westward expansion, believing that General Theological Seminary was sufficient to train clergy for the west. Knowing that Bishop Hobart would block any plans he might have, Chase traveled to England to raise funds to create a seminary in the "west." By July 1824, he had secured sufficient funds from the Lords Gambier, Bexley, and Kenyon. In December of that year, the Ohio legislature incorporated this theological seminary, and Kenyon College was born.

Finances were always a problem in the early days of Kenyon College and, as Chase struggled to keep the doors open, he became a more tyrannical leader. The Board of Trustees accused him of misappropriating funds raised for the seminary for use in keeping the college open. In 1831, Chase resigned the presidency of Kenyon College and the episcopacy of Ohio when the convention demanded he relinquish some control. He and his family left Gambier and settled near Millersburg then moved to Michigan. Barely 4 years later, the newly formed diocese of Illinois elected Chase its first bishop. Again he sought funds for the establishment of another western seminary; however, he was less successful than before. Undaunted, he secured sufficient funds to lay the cornerstone of Jubilee College in 1839 and soon the seminary, college, and grammar school opened. In 1849 fire destroyed the gristmills, eliminating an important income source for the endeavor.

By 1852, Chase was 77 and had lived a hard pioneer life; his health was failing. In September, his horse pulled him from his carriage. He lingered for several days but died on September 20, 1852. Without his towering presence, Jubilee College did not stand a chance. It struggled for several years, finally closing in 1862.

Philander Chase was unique in the early history of the Episcopal Church in the United States. He served as the first bishop of two western dioceses; he established two seminaries (one of which survives) dedicated to the education of "western" clergy despite constant attacks by clergy in the East; he endured immense personal sadness in the deaths of his wife Mary and three of his children (two of whom did not live to their first birthdays). Nevertheless, he overcame personal, financial, and professional hardships and worked to achieve the goals of bringing faith and education to the west. It is for this that he is remembered.

Prayer: Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the pioneer and perfecter of our faith: We give you heartfelt thanks for the pioneering spirit of your servant Philander Chase, and for his zeal in opening new frontiers for the ministry of your Church. Grant us grace to minister in Christ's name in every place, led by bold witnesses to the Gospel of the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LIVE is Pro-Active Planning ahead “addressing the inevitability of our mortal state, no matter what our age,” or maybe “just in case”. In faith we ask, “Death where is thy sting?” If we raise these issues now, when no immediate threat looms, we avoid much anxiety for ourselves and our loved ones.

LIVE is based on the National Hospice and Palliative Care Association “LIVE” Program and presented by Professionals from Mercy Medical Center of Canton and the Episcopal Diocese of Ohio.

LIVE is one thoughtful day of learning and reflecting to put you in the driver’s seat and help get you on track to resolve difficult questions, while allowing the flexibility to tailor the plan to your particular circumstances.

Get your Grace Vine electronically!

The Grace Vine is now available as an Adobe Acrobat PDF file on the church web site. If you would like, you can start retrieving it from there, rather than having a paper copy at the back of the church or in the mail. You would receive an email notifying you when the issue ready and linking to it so you don't get a huge email in your inbox.

If you would like to take advantage of this, send me an email at grwebmaster@graceravenna.org. Please consider carefully, however. We would rather make the paper copy and have it read than save the paper and postage and have it go unread. Thank you.
